BROADHEAD.

Traders say there never was such a scarcity of hogs in this part of the country.

Several ice houses were filled here last week with five-inch ice. Parties handling it say it is the clearest and purest they ever saw.

A little daughter of Postmaster John Robins is very sick. W. A. Carson is clerking for R. H. Hamm. Jake Elder made a flying trip to Livingston.

Our two physicians say they are going all the time; that there is considerable sickness in different parts of the county. Pneumonia fever is prevalent.

Solomon Northern, an employee of the L. & N., residing here, was struck by a train near Bardonia Junction a few days ago and sustained painful injuries.

Tony Brooks, of this place, the big section foreman who works a crew of men at Shepherdsville, is visiting his brother, George Brooks, at Williamsburg.

Christmas passed off here very quietly. Some drinking, as usual, but every one acted nicely about it. Lots of jugs and packages of whisky were shipped here but most of it was for persons out in the county.

"Hell" Lawrence, the low flung scamp who scattered small pox through this section last fall, and which caused one death and cost the county up into the thousand mark, was fined $100 at the last term of the Mt. Vernon circuit court.

The railroad side track at this place is again crowded with timber, such as hogs, lumber, cross ties, spikes, chestnut wood, etc., and there seems to be no let up in sight. J. G. Frith has recently bought of John Leese a tract of timber for $1,500, also a boundary from Mrs. James Moore for $2,100. Mr. Frith says that owing to the low price of lumber he may not begin to cut this timber until next autumn.

The Baptist Sunday school entertained its pupils with a tree, after which the ladies of the church gave a box supper and about $35 was realized. The Methodist Sunday school treated the pupils to a tree and a little entertainment in the way of songs and recitations. The Christian church Sunday school had no exercises. The Hamiltonian Society, which was to have rendered the play entitled "The Squire's Daughter," Xmas night, was unable to do so on account of the illness of one of the main actors. The play, however, will be given New Year's night and promises to be very enjoyable. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Christian church. Every one who can should witness this play and assist a worthy cause.

Visitors in and around town during Christmas are numerous. Among the lot we noticed Dr. O. O. Stone, of Middlesboro, with Emory Albright, Geo. Frith, of the Louisville Dental College, Ed R. Gentry, of the Louisville Law School, Byron Owens, of Georgetown College, are with the homefolks. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schubert, of Defiance, O., are with the latter's parents. Clarence Perkins, of Junction City, was the guest of his grand-father, Mr. R. S. Martin. Ezra Shivel, of Greensburg, is visiting his parents. Albert Albright and little son, William, are with W. H. Albright. Rev. J. W. Sayers, of Pineville, is with friends here. J. P. Hamm, of Walton, is the guest of relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carter, of Gratz, are with their sons, Dr. W. P. and Joe Gratz. Misses Elizabeth and Georgia Vermillion, of Danville, are guests of Miss Elizabeth Tharpe. B. Mayer, of Atlanta, is with friends here.

Kills Her Fox of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Hayneville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up. I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

At Toledo, O., Miss Carol Hunt was instantly killed and her parents were wounded, not seriously. Joseph Mackley, who is charged with having shot them, is sought by the police. Mackley had been refused the hand of the girl.

Baricaded in a dwelling house and armed with a shotgun and revolver, James F. Roach, who shot and seriously wounded his mother in Memphis, was hemmed in by a posse, but managed to slip out and escape.

"There are no words good enough to express my high opinion of M-I-O-N-A as a sure cure for indigestion."—J. F. Click, Hridgewater, Va., '09. G. L. Penny guarantees M-I-O-N-A. Large box, 50c.

William Adams and Miss Cora Haugh were joined in wedlock's holy bonds at Rev. J. M. Cook's by that gentleman Wednesday.

A. F. Watson and Miss Ora Foley, both of the East End, were joined heart and hand at Logan's Hotel, Crab Orchard, Wednesday.

Cyrus Johnson, a prominent young man of Kings Mountain, and Miss Ora Belle Reynolds, a pretty and popular girl of the same section, were married on the 28th.

Miss Mattie Hays Rochester, sister of Mr. J. Welch Rochester, of this place, was married at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Lee, at Middlesboro, to Mr. J. M. Owsley, of that place. The bride is well known here, where she lived many years and is greatly loved by our people. The groom is originally from Orlando, Fla., and is a fine young business man. They will make their home at Middlesboro.

Joseph Wm. Ferz, of Louisville, and Miss Emma H. Adams, of this city, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. S. Phillips, Rev. Walker, of the Christian church, officiating. They are both nates and are graduates of the K. S. D at Danville. The bride is a sister of Mesdames Ike and James Phillips and is quite popular. They will reside in Louisville, where the groom holds a splendid position. The two had been sweethearts since they were mere children.

A FRIEND.

J. A. Rogers and Miss Irene Ruble, two popular young people of Garrard county, drove to Burgin Dec. 23 and were joined in wedlock's holy bonds. They took the train for Louisville and other points of interest and will be gone several days on their bridal tour. The groom, who formerly lived in Lincoln county, is a clever and progressive young farmer, while his bride is the handsome and accomplished daughter of one of the oldest and wealthiest families of Garrard. Their many friends join in wishing them all the happiness this life affords.

On Dec. 24, E. E. Gann and Miss Ethel Eads surprised their many friends by driving to Stanford and having the nuptial knot tied. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Eads, of Hustonville, and is exceedingly pretty and lovable. "Ned," as he is familiarly known, is a son of James F. Gann, of Casey, and a prominent farmer. The contracting parties are formerly from Monticello and their courtship has lasted for some years. On Christmas day at the bride's home an elegant dinner was served. Many handsome presents were received. They will soon go to housekeeping on his Casey county farm. Their many friends join in wishing them a long, prosperous and happy wedded life.

Mr. W. P. Kincaid, of this place, and Mrs. Anna Russell, of Lebanon, were married at the residence of Rev. W. T. Baird in Lebanon Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Barker, relatives of the bride, stood with them during the ceremony. They came immediately to Stanford and will occupy his pretty home on Logan Avenue as soon as they can get it furnished. In the meantime they are domiciled at the St. Asaph. Mr. Kincaid is the well-known tobacco buyer and a very clever gentleman. His bride has lived in Stanford two winters and is well and most favorably known here. She is a handsome and excellent young woman and the man who won her heart and hand has reason to feel proud.

Don't drug the stomach, or stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is wrong. It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Vitalize these weak inside controlling nerves with Dr. Sloop's restorative, and see how quickly good health will come to you again. Test it and see! Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Some saloon advocates think the temperance people ought not to have contested the election "as the majority was so great as 87." Three years ago they contested a majority of 132, without a shadow of grounds for it. The other fellow's ox is gored.—Somerset Republican.

The First National Bank at Burnside, which closed its doors several months ago on account of heavy losses due to speculation by the president, C. W. Stewart, has adjusted all the losses and thrown open its doors again. A. B. Massey is the new president and F. E. Bradshaw, cashier.

Another notable event in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Riffe, of the West End, was celebrated Christmas day when all the children and grand children gathered at the old home to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their wedding. A grand dinner was indulged in and presents of every description were showered upon the happy pair. Bro. Montgomery made a beautiful talk referring to the noble character and worthy, active life of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Riffe are both in good health, active and awake to the demands of the day. It is indeed a great help to one to spend a day with these old people and note the devotion and well balanced manner of their lives. A worthy example is here to be found and such people are a blessing to any community. May the blessings of God attend this grand old couple.

E. C. WALTON

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

The New Year is upon us and how shall we celebrate its coming? Good resolutions are in order. So many new year resolutions are annually broken that some conclude it is not best to make these promises to ourselves. But if we never resolve we will never act. Decision must precede action. Let us not be discouraged by our failures but remember that most excellent maxim: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again!" Men fail in business, but gather up resolution and try again. There is nothing else left for them to do. They must have a living and to do so, effort is necessary. Many men have accumulated fortunes after having made more than one failure. And so often having broken good resolutions, men have triumphed over vicious habits. Every man should turn his face to the future at the beginning of the new year and resolve that he will make his life better than it has ever been. New year is a good time to look closely into our business affairs and assure ourselves of our real status. Men can not be too careful in their finances. It is easy to be deceived. The new year is a good time to set out to make everybody we come in contact with feel that we are his friend and are ready to do all we can for his happiness. As a community we should look about to see what there is wrong that we may set right, what public evil we may cure, what good work already begun should be completed. There is work for all, men, women and children.

HON. W. H. SHANKS, Lincoln county's splendid Representative in the next House, has withdrawn from the race for speaker and addresses a manly card to the Democratic members of the Lower House. The card will be found in this issue. We were very much in hopes that our friend and fellow townsman would be able to land the Speakership and regret that he deemed it best to retire from the race. He will not be speaker of course, but he will be found on the right side of all questions and ready and willing to do that which will further the cause of democracy and do the greatest number of people good. Mr. Shanks' presence will be felt in the Legislature which convenes next Tuesday.

It looks like a cinch for Hon. J. M. Alverson, of this office, to win the office of assistant clerk of the Senate. He has more than enough votes pledged him to win on the first ballot. Mr. Alverson filled the position most creditably two years ago and his work then has been of great help in his present race. "Jess" generally gets what he goes after and always performs well the duties incumbent on him. Before another issue of this paper is printed we believe he will have again been elected.

"TEX" RICKARD, the Western sport, who bought the Jeffries-Johnson fight to be pulled off July 4, says: "I figure that we will seat 30,000 persons. Figuring on an average of $10 for each seat, there will be $300,000 in the house." From $5 to $50 will be charged for seats. E. R. Thomas, the wealthy New Yorker, offered Richard $1,000 for eight ring-side seats but he declined it. Surely some people are anxious to see men beat up each other.

Gov. NOEL, of Mississippi has announced the appointment of Col. James Gordon, of Okolona, as United States Senator from Mississippi, to succeed the late Senator A. J. McLaurin. The appointment is temporary, lasting until the Legislature can elect a Senator for the unexpired term of three years and three months, and is made with the understanding that Senator Gordon will not be a candidate for the unexpired term.

PRESIDENT TAFT has begun the preparation of the first of his special messages to Congress. This message will deal with amendments which he believes are necessary in the interstate commerce and Sherman anti-trust acts. The President will deal with the anti-trust act at great length.

The Explorers' Club in New York accepted by a unanimous vote the report of its committee which investigated Dr. F. A. Cook's Mount McKinley claims, and he was expelled from membership. Dr. Cook should now apply for membership in the Liar's club.

The plant of the Owensboro Inquirer, recently purchased by Ex-Auditor Hager, burned. The paper is being issued from the office of the Owensboro Daily Messenger. Judge Hager hopes to have the damage repaired in a short time.

Gov. Hughes authorized the extradition to New Jersey of Mrs. Caroline B. Martin and Mrs. Mary Sneed, who are wanted in Newark on charges implicating them in the murder of Mrs. Okey Sneed in East Orange, N. J.

Roy McKinney killed Dora Campbell and then committed suicide in a hotel at Peru, Ind.

Additional Local.

LANCASTER capitalists, headed by Banks Hudson, have bought the Pilgrimage distillery, warehouse and 15 acres of land, close to Lancaster, for $8,000 and will convert the buildings into tobacco warehouses.

Miss LUCY MASSEY had an interesting programme at her school on Friday 24th, consisting of vocal music, speeches and dialogues. Her school closed yesterday. We doubt not that Miss Massey has taught a better school at Coffey's than has been thought for some time.

HUSTONVILLE.—Luther J. Willis, of Louisville, spent a few days with his parents here. Miss Lois Willis, who is teaching at Earlinton, is with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Willis. Misses Margaret and Sarah Matthews, of Lexington, are with their uncle, Rev. W. S. Willis. Misses Martha Baker and Mary Taylor, of Nicholasville, are with Mrs. W. C. Neal.

Hon. W. H. Shanks Withdraws from the Speaker's Race.

To the Honorable Democratic members of the House of Representatives of Kentucky:

I hereby notify you that I have withdrawn from the race for Speaker. My reason for this action is the good and sufficient one that I do not think I could win. I wish to thank all of my friends who have announced their willingness to assist me in this race and also to assure my opponents, Messrs. George Wilson, of Union, and Harry Schobert, of Woodford, that I deeply appreciate the courteous treatment they have accorded me in this fight and assure both of them of my best wishes. I desire further to say that I shall do all in my power during the coming session of the Legislature to further the interests of the State of Kentucky and the democratic party, and that I quit the race without any sore spots on me and with a kindly feeling towards every one.

W. H. SHANKS.

LEWIS. - Dr. T. M. Lewis, who had been in feeble health for months, died Sunday morning, aged 78, and was buried in Buffalo cemetery Monday afternoon after brief services at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Higgins. For many years Dr. Lewis practiced medicine in Boyle county and he was regarded as a fine physician. He moved here about 10 years ago and he and his excellent family were among Stanford's best citizens. For years he had been a member of the Christian church and he so lived as to be ready when the final summons came. He was a kind-hearted, clever man and the poor had in him a true friend. In fact the night was never so dark nor the road too rough for him to answer calls made by the needy. Two years ago his splendid wife died and the doctor had been on the decline since. He is survived by two daughters, Misses Georgia and Margaret Lewis and the following sons: Messrs. A. A. Lewis, of Covington, John M. Lewis, of Missouri, R. L. Lewis and Lucien Lewis, of Oregon, and in their loss they have the unbounded sympathy of their many friends. Mr. A. A. Lewis came to Stanford but arrived too late for the burial. THE Lincoln County National Bank declared a dividend of 3 per cent. and carried $3,000 to the surplus. The First National Bank declared a 3 per cent. dividend, paid expenses and taxes, reduced premium $500 and set aside $500 to meet future taxes.

HOWARD CAMNITZ, of Hustonville, is now the champion pitcher of the United States, which means the world as well. He has just been presented with a handsome diamond pin by the National League of Base Ball Clubs for winning the championship. Great indeed is Camnitz.

THE boys did not take our advice to have a sane Christmas, but on the contrary burned up their money in fireworks. Several glasses were broken by the cannon crackers and sky rockets, including one of the large plate glass windows of H. J. McRoberts' store. It is very probable that the losers by the boyish pranks will sue the town for damages.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. I need, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—gives blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently though surely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation. If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 30 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure. Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense. We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend
